KING'S-COLLEGE, New-York, September 17, 1767.

AS the Establishment of a School, for the regular instruction of Gentlemen in the different Branches of MEDICINE, must not only promote the Honour and Utility of that important and necessary Science, but likewise conduce to the general Advancement of Learning; The GOVERNORS of this COLLEGE, in Consequence of the Powers vested in them by their Charter; and being desirous of rendering the Institution over which they preside, as publicly and extensively useful as possible; have appointed the following Professors,

SAMUEL CLOSSEY, M. D. Professor of ANATOMY.

PETER MIDDLETON, M. D. Professor of the THEORY of PHYSIC.

JOHN JONES, M. D. Professor of SURGERY.

JAMES SMITH, M. D. Professor of CHYMISTRY and

MAT. MED.

JOHN TENNENT, M. D. Professor of MIDWIFERY.

SAMUEL BARD, M. D. Professor of the PRACTICE of PHYSIC.

The above Gentlemen will begin their Lectures the first Monday in November next, and continue them regularly 'till the Completion of the several Courses, which it is supposed, will be some Time in May; and Degrees in Physic will be conferred upon the following Terms:

1. Each Student shall be matriculated as in the Universities of ENGLAND.

2. Such Students as have not taken a Degree in Arts shall satisfy the Examiners, before their Admission to a Degree in PHYSIC, that they have a competent Knowledge of, at least, the Latin Language, and of the necessary Branches of Natural Philosophy.

3. No Student shall be admitted to his Examination for a Bachelor's Degree, in less than three Years after his Matriculation; and having attended at least, one complete Course of Lectures under each PROFESSOR: Unless he can produce proper Certificates of his having serv'd an Apprenticeship, of three Years, to some reputable Practitioner; in which Case he may be admitted to his Examination in Two Years, from his Matriculation.

4. In one Year after having obtained a Bachelor's Degree, a Student may be admitted to his Examination for the Degree of DOCTOR; provided he shall previously have attended two Courses of Lectures under each PROFESSOR, be of Twenty-two Years of Age, and have published, and publicly defended, a Treatise upon some Medical Subject.

5. The Mode of Examination, both public and private, shall be conformable to the Practice of the most celebrated Universities of EUROPE.

6. Students from any reputable University, may be admitted ad eundem producing proper Certificates, and Graduates, will be entitled to the same Privilege, on producing the like Certificate, and satisfying the Professors of their Medical Abilities.

TO BE SOLD CHEAP,

A Neat Chamber ORGAN, has Four, and an Half Stops in it, and room for another.—It is large enough for a small Church, and is esteemed a good Instrument. Inquire of the Printer. 91 94.

Joris Brinckerhoff,

HAVING declined Business, in-treats all Persons indebted to him of a long Standing, to make speedy Payment in Order to prevent Trouble; and those whose Accounts are now about become due, are desired to settle the same, or otherwise give Bond or Note to his Satisfaction.

He has still on Hand, a Parcel of Mahogany Plank fit for Shipping, and the Remains of his Shop; which he will dispose of for Cash at prime Cost, and at a short Credit for a very small Advance, equal to the Interest of the Money for the Time of Credit.—He also informs his old Customers and others, that the Business in the Retail Way will be continued in the same House, opposite the Coenties-Market, by his Son ABRAHAM; where they may be supplied as usual, and upon the same Terms, at the cheapest Rate. 91 94.

PUBLIC Notice is hereby given, that all those who have any just Demands on the Estate of Robert Sproull, of South-Amboy, deceased; are desired to send them to Elizabeth Sproull, Administratrix, in New-York, to receive Satisfaction for the same; and all Persons who stand indebted to said Estate, either by Bond, Book Debt, or otherwise, are desired to make immediate Payment to the aforesaid Elizabeth Sproull, or they may depend their accounts will be put into the Hands of an Attorney.

The aforesaid Elizabeth Sproull, expects to be in Amboy on the 15th of October next, where she will reside for three or four days. 90 93

To the Printer of the London Evening Post.

WHEN the reason was required, Why America peopled faster than England? the answer was, "They marry younger and more generally." And when it was further asked, Why they did so? the reason assigned was, "Because if industrious they may easily obtain land of their own on which they can raise a family." How different are the richer people of England and America, in their opinions on this subject?

Although more than one hundred and fifty thousand quarters of wheat have been imported since the 25th of March last, the bread has not fallen since April the 14th following, and now it is at the extravagant rate of eight-pence farthing the quarter loaf, a price which in many families runs away with more than half a poor man's earnings. These are the encouragements in this land, while the Americans are of opinion that the industrious poor should not only live by their labour, but that by their industry they may procure also a landed estate of their own. And the numbers of our people not increasing, while in the compass of about twenty-five years theirs is supposed to be doubled, is a full proof who are the best judges in the matter; to which I shall only beg leave to add, that if an industrious man is obliged weekly to expend in his family half or more of his six days earnings on bread alone, how can he procure them cloaths also? And if the greater half of the people of this land, on account of the dearth of provisions, cannot become consumers of our woollen manufactory on the one hand, and other nations undersell us at every foreign market on the other, think, my countrymen, before it is too late, what must the end of these things be? Z.

To the PRINTERS of the BOSTON EVENING POST.

THE honourable Mr. Hutchinson in his history of this province tells us, "That in 1634 the people asserted a greater right in the government than had hitherto been allowed to them,"—and resolved previous to the election of magistrates, "That none but the general court had power to make laws, appoint officers, raise monies and taxes" &c. and that they accordingly settled the legislative body, which with some immaterial exceptions continued as long as the charter lasted. His Honour further says, "That there was no express provision for it in the (old) charter," and observes, "that the people suppos'd, and he might have added with reason, that the natural rights of Englishmen refer'd to them imply'd it." By the present charter a general court is constituted, to consist of the governor, council and house of representatives, who have power to make laws, &c. so that the right in government which our forefathers asserted under the first charter, as being a part of the natural rights of Englishmen, is expressly, in the present charter recogniz'd to us: But had there been no such express provision for it in this charter, yet the natural rights of Englishmen refer'd to us would have imply'd it. If our fathers judg'd well, as I take it for granted they did, and the right of being represented in the legislative body was part of their natural rights as Englishmen, it follows that the people of New-York who are Englishmen are entitled to the same right; and to deprive them of their general court, which is effectually done if their power of legislation is suspended, is to deprive them of their natural rights as Englishmen.—Tho' I must own I cannot see why the rights of nature should be appropriated or confin'd to Englishmen.

His Honour upon another occasion says in his history, that "the allegiance of English subjects by a general rule of law is not consider'd as local but perpetual and unalienable." Whether this doctrine will admit of the least doubt or not, I take not upon me to question at present; I presume however that no one will say that any people are bound by allegiance when they are not protected in the enjoyment of their natural rights: If in the nature of things, protection and allegiance imply each other, it is equally unjustifiable for the Prince to withhold protection as for the people to withdraw allegiance: In either case one essential tie of government is broken, and the obligation which is forever mutual ceases. This is so obvious to every man who has had leisure to think at all of the nature and end of government, that it would have been needless to have mention'd it, but to check the impetuosity of some men, who seem to take a pleasure in anticipating a severe treatment of the American colonies; and are frequently talking of a suspension of the legislative of New-York as in effect already done; Surely these men do not well consider the consequences that might attend the bare hinting so extraordinary a step: They cannot think that the people of New-York would remain perfectly quiet to be deprived of the power of legislation, or what is the same thing, to be oblig'd by an act of their own to give it up.—Besides, New-York does not stand alone: the same conditions are requir'd of her sister colonies, and they will all be called to the same trial: As the matter is not yet determined that we know of, having no other authority than a Newspaper, it is in my opinion imprudent if not dangerous to mention it even as a probable thing: We ought rather to suppose, till we are convinc'd to the contrary, that there is more wisdom left in the British nation, than to pursue a measure as impolitic as it would be unjust: nothing would tend more to hasten an event which it behoves Great-Britain as much as it does the colonies as long as possible to protract: There needs not a spirit of prophecy to foresee that the event I mean will in the course of things take place; how soon! God only knows: The surest way to prolong it is to cultivate a union between Great-Britain and America.—The colonies are, and no doubt ever will remain united: Those who have been endeavouring by falsely representing them to the mother country, to alienate her affections, like Solomon's mad man, are casting about fire brands for sport: It is too late to think of enslaving America: I pray God that Britain may never be convinc'd of the truth of it by attempting to effect it.—The government of every colony, says the historian aforementioned, may be consider'd as the effigies parva of the mother state: This is speaking as modestly as she can in reason desire: But how the government of New-York can be consider'd as even the effigies minima of Great-Britain, WITHOUT A LEGISLATIVE, is hard to conceive.

VESPASIAN.

L O N D O N,

July 13. Thirteen of the best Hammer-men and Forge-men in the Iron Manufactory have been engaged to go from Sheffield to America, for which a handsome premium is given them; and great wages for two years certain, and six shillings a week to each of their wives and families as stay behind for that time. They have also given 100 guineas for each of the best Saw-makers, and the same money for their wives that stay. [If provisions are kept up at the rate they at, the Americans will soon have hands enough to carry on their manufactories, without giving premiums.]

The Rose, Capt. Dyfart, (arrived at Liverpool,) has made a remarkable short voyage, being but eleven weeks and five days going from Londonderry to Philadelphia, and from thence back to Liverpool.

On Tuesday last a basket-woman of Covent Garden Market, was safely brought to bed of three fine boys, who are all likely to live; and last Saturday, to the surprise of several persons, she was seen plying for work in the same Market, and actually carried several burthens.

Extract of a Letter from Stockholm, June 30:
"The subsidy treaty, which is on the tapis between this kingdom and Great-Britain, seems to be on the point of maturity."

Extract of a Letter from Bengal.

"All is peace in this country, and is likely to continue so. Lord Clive has displayed great capacity and abilities in the judicious plan he has established for preserving the Company's valuable possessions here: Many of his last appointments and regulations have given such general satisfaction, that clamour and discontent are absorbed in admiration of his many great and shining virtues."

By letters received yesterday from a certain town in Staffordshire, we are informed, that a Popish Chapel has lately been opened there, where two Priests publicly perform mass every day; a large house has been hired within a mile and a half of the said town, where an academy is formed, and never less than 200 lads at a time are educated in the principles of Popery.

B O S T O N, September 28.

The following Extract of a Letter from a Merchant in London, to his Friend in this Town, we are requested to insert.

London, June 17, 1767.

"Yesterday the Bills for suspending the Legislation of New-York until said Colony shall comply with the Mutiny Act, and for Establishing a Board of Customs, were read the second Time in the House of Lords;—and the Bill of commercial Taxation pass'd in the same House to be engross'd.

With respect to providing for the Troops, no Opposition is so reasonable because none can be so effectual, as that which procured the Repeal of the Stamp-Act, viz. the general Engagement to import no Goods from England, till such a Taxation be removed or disclaimed by the Repeal of the Act: And the Efficacy of this Mode of Opposition could never be more assuredly depended upon than at present; because that the Manufacturers can but barely support themselves under the present Scarcity of Provisions and slackness of Trade, which is so great a Discouragement, that altho' Wool never was dearer in England than now, yet Cloths are 20 per Cent. cheaper than ever was known: So that should your demand cease for a Year or two; the utmost you can desire would be effected for you here without any unconstitutional Opposition on your Parts: This Method of Proceeding will have this good effect besides, viz. that you will have a good Price for all your dead Stock (by-interchange with one a nother for Assortment) which would always have been unprofitable—you would collect in your Debts, and bring your Debts in England to a close, before you run any further into Debt; so that the Balance would hereby be bro't about in your Favour, which without some such Method must be forever against you."

N E W - H A V E N, October 6.

On Saturday Night last, the Shop of Mr. Michael Todd, of this Town, was broke open and robbed of Money and Goods to the Value of £.150.—But 'tis hoped the Thief will be taken, as a Piece of Ribbon (part of the aforesaid Goods) was brought to Town, which he made a Present of to a Child in Amity.

About a Fortnight ago a Man was rob'd in Goshen, in this Government, of upwards of SEVENTY POUNDS, by two Men not yet discovered.—The Man had imprudently expos'd his Money in public Company, and as he was on the Road a Man rush'd out of the Woods and seized his Horse by the Bridle. He asked the Man what he meant? He told him he wanted his Money; and immediately another Man came on the other Side, seized him by the Leg, and turn'd him off the Saddle, and said let us kill the Dog. He desired them to take his Money and spare his Life, and immediately delivered it. One of the Ruffins insisted much upon taking his Life, but the other oppos'd it, saying they had got his Money.

New-York, September 29, 1767.
To be peremptorily Sold, at Public Vendue, for either Cash or Bills of Exchange, on Thursday the 22d of October, next, at 12 o'Clock, at the Coffee-House,

VALUABLE Ninety-nine Years

Leaf of two very large Lots and a Half of College Ground, adjoining the North-River, near King's-College, New-York, being situated between Center Lots, and Corner Lots, and improved with a new substantial large well built Brick House very neat, with very great conveniences, and with three elegant Fronts, elevated and situate on Streets and Corner Lots, in such a regular delightful Manner, that no future Improvements will interrupt either of its Fronts, nor its beautiful Prospects.—The whole Plan is truly Modern, and is either a double or a single House, extremely warm in Winter, and exceeding cool in Summer, and is three Stories high, besides excellent dry Cellars under the whole Building, which, from two Feet is continued a Brick and a Half thick all round quite up to the Wall Plate.—It is erected on the best and strongest Dimensions, being 50 Feet by 37 Feet 4 Inches, and is built with very extraordinary strong Mortar, and with two Sorts of the strongest and largest Bricks, picked out at a great deal of Trouble and Expence: The Roof is framed and Dove-tail'd together on the new Model, for Strength and Service, by which Method the whole Weight of its Strength is perpendicular on the Walls which cannot spread. The Walls are likewise firmly braced together at every Storey, by a late ingenious Contrivance. Every Part is done in the strongest Manner by the best Workmen, all by the Day, under a very industrious careful Inspection. The Foundations are laid deep, two Feet wide on Clay and Loom, spreading 14 Feet wide, without-side the Walls, and 16 Feet within the Walls, which stand exceeding firm & exact, proved by repeated Surveys of each Corner of the Building, &c. and which also proves the Foundations to be uncommonly solid. The College Lots, particularly those next the Water, are very valuable, and on very easy Ground Rent, and the above two Lots and a Half are nearly as large as 5 Lots of the same Ground, consequently they are but a trifle more than half the common Ground Rent, being in the outermost Lines of the Whole 182 Feet and 160 Feet by 54 Feet 10 Inches, and 50 Feet, exclusive of the Streets. They are also in the Center of very promising improvements: The Ninety-nine Years Lease of the above Lots, is worth a large Estate, and it is esteemed by a real Experience to be as fine Air, and as pleasant healthy a Situation as any in the World, and bath a Spring of very excellent Fresh Water near the Middle of the Lots. On each Side of the House is Room for spacious Gardens, &c. and the whole inclosed with a good and strong Fence.—In making the above substantial large Improvements, with levelling the Lots, and levelling my Part of the Streets, and making 77 Feet of Water Fence, no Pains nor Expences was spared, for it was not any of it improved with the least Intentions of Sale. But some very material and very advantageous Business, calls me to England, with my Family, quite unexpectedly. The Premises may be surveyed and viewed at any Time to the Day of Sale: For further Particulars enquire of SAMUEL SPENCER SKINNER.

N. B. If any Person have any Demands against me, they are

WHEREAS the partnership of John

Shaw, currier, deceased, and George Shaw, Tanner, (both of the city of New-York) ended by the death of the aforesaid John Shaw; and whereas the executors of his last will and testament, did advertise in the New-York Mercury, for all the debtors to said partnership, to pay off their respective balances, to enable them to close said partnership, and have waited since the date of said advertisement, which was published in March 1765, and little or no regard has been paid to the same.

This is to give notice to all concerned, that I the subscriber will take such methods as the law directs for the recovery of the same, unless they come in 14 days from this date, and pay off those balances, that I may settle the partnership.

POETS CORNER.

N I G H T.

YON ruddy streaks, that in the West appear, Proclaim Night's dark dominion to be near;
The lark's shepherd's now with haste prepare,
To pitch their folds, and pen their fleecy care.
Forth from the barn the screech owl wings her flight,
By instinct conscious of th' approaching Night.
See dusky curtains overspread the skies,
And half the world in gloomy stillness lies,
'Tis awful all! a solemn silence reigns,
And spreads her empire o'er the distant plains.
The landscape loses all its gay parade,
And Nature seems quite buried in the shade.
What means this change! Behold a gleam of light,
With modest lustre silvers o'er the Night,
Darkness no longer bears the fullen sway,
Yet slowly yields to imitated Day;
While virgin Cynthia mildly seeks to rise,
And sheds sweet radiance o'er the spangled skies:
Nature once more her verdant charms displays,
The ravish'd eye, the pleasing scene surveys;
With wonder views the firmament above,
And bows to Heav'n in gratitude and love.

On LIBERTY.

NE'ER be thy charms, fair Liberty! resign'd,
Birthright bestow'd by Heav'n on all mankind!
Every delight is tasteless, but with thee!
No man's completely wretched who is free!
Let Critic Malice point her poison'd dart,
Dissect my brain, anatomize my heart;
If but one line the happy means should prove,
To enlarge the sphere of beautiful Virtue's love,
One Reader form on freedom's equal plan,
Improv'd as friend, as citizen, or man,
The latent seeds in some found breast explore,
And raise for Liberty one Champion more,
The Pride will far o'erbalance years of pain,
The honest Pride, Not to have liv'd in vain.

The Complaint of a RING-DOVE.

FAR from the smiles of blue hesperian skies,
Far from those vales, where flowery pleasures dwell,
(Dear scenes of freedom, lost to these sad eyes!)
How hard to languish in this lonely cell!
When genial gales relume the fires of love,
When laughing spring leads round the jocund year;
Ah! view with pity, gentle maid, your dove,
From every heart felt joy secluded here!
To me no more the laughing spring looks gay;
Nor annual love resume my languid breath:
Time slowly drags the long, delightful day,
Through one dull scene of solitary rest.
Ah! what avails that dreaming fancy roves
Through the wild beauties of her native reign!
Breathes in green fields, and feeds in freshening groves,
To wake to anguish in this hopeless chain?
Tho' fondly loath'd with pity's tenderest care,
Tho' still by Chloe's gentle hand caress'd,
For the free forest, and the boundless air,
The rebel, nature, murmurs in my breast.
Ah! let not nature, Chloe, plead in vain!
For kindness' sure should grace a form so fair:
Restore me to my native wilds again,
To the free forest and boundless air.

From the LONDON CHRONICLE.

PRIDE, Envy, Malice, peace of mind destroy;
Torment our souls, embitter ev'ry joy;
Then shun them as thou would'st a Crocodile
Engender'd in the furies of the Nile.

THE Debtors to the Estate of the late BENJAMIN NICOLL, Esq; deceased, having paid no regard to the former Advertisements, are again called upon to pay their Debts to the Subscriber; the Circumstances of the Family making it absolutely necessary, or they may depend on being sued without Distinction or further Notice. (89 99) JAMES DUANE.

KING'S-COLLEGE, September 24, 1767.

ON Monday November the second, at four o'clock in the evening, (God willing) the first part of Doctor CLOSSI's Anatomical Lectures, will begin with the usefulness of anatomy; and will proceed to the descriptions of the dry, and fresh bones, with their cartilages; ligaments and membranes, internal structure, uses, motions and diseases, on every Friday and Monday ensuing.

After the first part, the muscling will be exhibited in the adult subject.

The third part contains, the arteries, veins, and nerves in a young subject. And the whole will be concluded with the encephalon, and viscera of the inferior cavities, together with their uses, motions and affections.

Attendance for each course, five pounds, and free after two courses.

To those who see dissections and preparations, ten pounds for each course.

N. B. As this course is revived under the countenance of the president and governors of the college; all possible care will be taken to render it useful, not only to those whose indispensable business it is to understand the human structure, but to gentlemen of other professions and employments. 90

New-York, September 1, 1767. 87 95

L O N D O N, July 31.

LETTER from Podore factory and settlement say, that one of the Moorish Caravans had lately discovered a long way in land a species of white negroes of very diminutive stature; one of whom, of the male sex, they brought with them to the fort, who did not exceed three feet high.

It is said that the decree given in Scotland, in favour of the Hamilton family, is not final; and that an appeal will be made next Sessions to the Right Hon. House of Peers for a rehearing.

From Malaga they write, that some Assassins broke into the house of Mr. Tulk, an English gentleman there, when they killed two of his domesticks, and dangerously wounded him, but he is since recovered, Mr. Tulk, and some young gentlemen, passing by the Host, and not paying reverence to it, is said to have occasioned this horrid act.

We hear from Amsterdam, that they import 13,000 lasts of corn from the Baltic in a week, and notwithstanding which their granaries are all full,
and ready to supply the London market, when required.

Yesterday, in the absence of the Mother, a puppy got into Bed with a male child about eight months old, son of Mr. Lemman, Stocking-maker, in Southwark, and tore out its bowels; & the babe soon after died.

We hear that expresses have been sent to the Right
Hon. Earl Temple, and the Right Hon. William Dowdeswell, Esq; desiring their attendance in town.

A letter received at Lisbon, from the Bay of All Saints, mentions, that two Dutch sloops and a schooner, laden with Powder and shot, small arms ordnance stores, &c. were boarded by a Portuguese man of war near the Rio de la plata, the commander of which finding the above cargoes were for the use of the Jesuits of Paraguay, had confiscated
the whole, for the use of the King of Portugal.

We hear from different parts of Kent, that if this weather continues, their will be great plenty both of corn and hops.

Alterations in the Uniform Clothing of the Flag and other Officers of His Majesty's Fleet.

The Admirals Frocks to have narrow Lappels down to the Waist; small Boot Cuffs; a single Lace instead of treble Lace down the Skirts; to be laced with a plain Musquetaire Lace, agreeable to the Pattern lodged at the Navy Office, and in all other Respects to be the same as are now worn.

The Captains and Commanders Frocks to have narrow Lappels down to the Waist, and in all other Respects to continue as they are now worn.

The Lieutenants Frocks to have narrow Lappels down to the Waist, Slash Cuffs like the Commansders (without Lace) instead of Roll Cuffs, and in all other Respects to remain as they are now worn.

A View of Political Letters which have appeared in the London Daily Papers.

MINDFUL in the Public Advertiser, says, "As a man and an Englishman, I should blush for humanity and this country, if the lines addressed to you, and signed attention, in your paper of July 14 did not raise the indignation of every man who reads them, who is of that faction composed of two sets of men lately hating and despising each other, but now united to force themselves into situations where they have been already tried, and in which their insufficiency, ignorance, and obstinacy have very near undone us. The much injured Buckhorse in his combats, where he fought for gain, sparing his prostrate enemy, and would have been kicked off the stage had he done otherwise. But the more venal and brutal B—, who assumes and dishonors his name, spurns and buffets the friend and Saviour of his country, broken with infirmities contracted in the service of that country, and suffering tortures which the lenity of our laws forbid in the Punishment of the most heinous offender. The worthy junto, who would hold their sovereign in thralldom, huzza,
and applaud the action; may such men never govern a free, generous and grateful people!

The following has appeared in the Public Advertiser
Date Obulum Belisario.

Racked by the most excruciating bodily pain; inflicted, under this affliction, by his enemies, and the enemies of his country; deserted and betrayed by his pretended friends; his true ones not permitted to serve and defend him!

Can any situation be imagined more shocking to humanity?—Yet this is the case of a late Right Hon. Gentleman, and now truly Noble Lord; A man that procured for his country a greater series of successes than any other nation was ever blessed with, her enemies themselves being judges, in a kingdom too, whose inhabitants seven years ago were as much renowned through the world for their justice and generosity as for their bravery and courage.
Tantum Tempora mutantur. So much are the people exalted by a generous guide, and abused by selfinterested leaders.

B O S T O N, Sept. 14.

In Captain Jarvis came Passengers the Rev. Mr.
Moses Badger, and the Rev. Mr. Beach: who some Time since went to England for Episcopal Ordination: The former an Itinerant Missionary in the Province of New Hampshire, the latter for New-Brunswick in New-Jersey.

PROVIDENCE, Sept. 19.

Capt. Brown from Newfoundland, informs us, that he touched at Martha's Vineyard, where a Vessel had arrived from Turks-Island, that took up in the Night, in Lat. 15, six Men, from the Wreck of a Brig belonging to Philadelphia, loaded with Lumber for the West-Indies, which had overset sixteen Days before, in a Squall of Wind, when the Capt.
and Mate were drowned. One of the Hands died a Day after they were taken up.

THE Public are desired to suspend their Opinion of two Letters published in the New-York Gazette of Monday last, subscribed with my Name; the said Letters being left for me to sign, and in a Manner extorted, while I was in Confinement, as the only Condition on which I could obtain my Liberty after several Years Confinement.

HEND. OUDENAARDE.

Huntington, September 20th, 1767.

RUN away from Joseph

Lewis of Huntington, in Suffolk County, a Negro Man, named Daniel, about 21 Years of Age; and a Negro Boy, named Ben about 13 Years old:—Daniel, had on when he went away a light brown coat, brown jacket, leather breeches and check linen shirt; wears his hat with a peak cock, and white button; is about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, a very likely stout, lim'd fellow; the boy had on when he went off, a light blue camblet coat, check shirt and tow trowsers, is remarkable for having one fine eye, and lost one joint of one of his little fingers:
Whoever takes up and secures both, or either of said negroes, that their master may have them again, or notice given to Thomas Tucker in New-York, shall be reasonably rewarded, and all charges paid.

JOSEPH LEWIS. 90 93

All Persons that have any Demands against the Estate of John Leverage, late of the City of New-York, Ship-wright, are desired to send in their Accounts to Samuel Vanborn, on or before the first Day of October next.—And all Persons indebted to the said Estate, are desired immediately to discharge their respective Debts, or they must expect to be sued without further Notice. The Creditors are very desirous to make a Dividend of such Monies as are in their Hands, but are unable to settle each Creditor's Proportion, as a Number of them have only sent in their Names as Creditors, but not their Demands against the said Estate.
